

Post Traumatic Stress Disorder and the Emergency First Responder

Chatham High School Auditorium

May 7, 2024

Sign-in begins - 6:00pm ~ Presentation @ 6:30pm

Presented by: Dr. Andrew S. Berry, Ph.D., Psy.D., ABPP

Andrew "Doc" Berry grew up in Spencertown, N.Y. and graduated from Chatham High School. Described as a "self motivator," Doc Berry put himself through college and graduate school earning two Master's Degrees and two Doctoral Degrees. During his quest for knowledge and finding his place to best serve, he has focused on and is now recognized as a national figure in the area of PTSD involving veterans and first responders. He is dedicated to serving those people who serve in either (or both) capacities. Doc Berry has presented to groups locally and in different parts of the United States.

Doc Berry completed training and is a past volunteer firefighter and EMT with the Niskayuna Fire District #2 Fire Company. His practice is in Niskayuna, N.Y., where he resides with his family.
